

AI DEBATE

Rulebook

DESCRIPTION ABOUT THE EVENT

Welcome to the AI Debate Competition, where intellect, reasoning, and adaptability collide!

This unique debate challenges participants to test their debating skills first against Artificial Intelligence (AI) and then against fellow human opponents.

Your mission? To showcase critical thinking, logical arguments, and persuasive communication while adapting to two completely different opponents—machines and humans.

Do you have what it takes to outsmart AI and outshine humans? Let's find out! ⚡🧠🤖

COMPETITION FORMAT

The event will consist of two rounds:

Round 1: Man vs. Machine

- Participants will debate against an AI platform (selected by organizers).
- Topics will be provided on the spot.
- Each participant gets 2 minutes for opening arguments and 1 minute for rebuttal.
- Judges will assess clarity, argument strength, and ability to counter AI reasoning.

Time Limit: 5 minutes per participant

Evaluation: Judges + AI performance metrics

COMPETITION FORMAT

The event will consist of two rounds:

Round 2: Man vs. Man

- Winners from Round 1 will proceed to face other human participants.
- A formal debate-style match will be conducted (one motion, for vs. against).
- Each speaker gets 3 minutes opening statement, 2 minutes rebuttal, and 1 minute conclusion.
- Judging will focus on content, presentation, rebuttal strength, and teamwork (if team format is allowed).
- Only 6 teams would be qualified for round 2

Time Limit: 10 minutes per debate

Evaluation: Panel of judges
